

Insurance

Cycling is an activity that gives you the ability to have direct contact with the natural environment.

Our experienced guide and support vehicle will always be by your side throughout the duration of each journey. Our partners have been chosen with great care and we target to your maximum satisfaction!

We invite you to live this experience, wander in our tracks to feel the hospitality of our people. We are confident that you will become our permanent customers.

We are able and always at your disposal, to design together routes that will meet any experience of your dreams

It is important to us to understand, that all participants will comply with the rules , regulations, restrictions where they may apply and the guidance of the safety escort and personnel of the cretan sports cycling, the company that we choose to cooperate for this interesting tour , experts on cycling tours and athletic events on Crete.

Traveler Responsibility

As a traveler you have the responsibility to a trip appropriated to your interests and ability.

Cretan Sports Cycling guides reserve the right to reject any participant from a tour for reasons of inability or behavior endangering the safety and the welfare of him/herself or others, without this being a reason for refund.

By making the deposit payment you are deemed to have accepted Cretan Sports Cycling Terms and Conditions.

We require all tour participants to complete a booking form in full. Failure to provide full details of your travel plans may result in miscommunications of your exact travel specifications. Also customers must complete a Customer Declaration form in order to accept the terms of the tour. Deposit and declaration form are necessary to participate to the tour.